MEMORANDUM TO:

William J. Casey
 Director

Central Intelligence Agency

William H. Webster
 Director

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Your August 18, 1982 memorandum reporting on the status of Operation Courtship was very informative. I am pleased to note that we are able to develop acceptable and practical means by which the FBI and the CIA may combine their substantial capabilities and expertise in furtherance of the national interest. Since you believe this operation is successful and productive and merits continued effort under existing terms and conditions, I am reapproving it on that basis for the upcoming fiscal year. (S)
